

Nipple shields

TULIPS STERILE

Assists with sucking or latching on problems

The nipple shields help support pain-free breastfeeding by making it easier for the baby to latch on, and protecting and relieving the severely stressed nipples. The special tulip shape means that the baby experiences the smell of its mother close up.

Get a quote now

Important features at a glance

- Assists with sucking or latching on problems
- Also ideal for unusual shaped nipples
- Easier for premature babies to suck
- To relieve sore, painful nipples
- Available in M and L sizes
- sterile, individually packed